

Tarmo Ots has worked in several positions related to maritime issues during his career. From 2006 up to 2011 Mr Ots was a transport attache (maritime and aviation matters) in Brussels for the Permanent Representation of Estonia to the EU. During the period 2011 until 2013 he worked as Head of Aviation and Maritime Department at the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications. After joining the Estonian Maritime Administration, he became Head of the Communications Department. Since January 2016, his position has been Executive External Affairs Officer at the Administration.

He graduated from the Estonian Maritime Academy in the field of hydrography and later studied maritime safety and environmental administration at the World Maritime University in Malmö, Sweden.